

|                                      |                            |
|--------------------------------------|----------------------------|
| French                        | Year 3 - Unit 1     |
| Focus - Moi (me)              |                            |
| Age Related French Vocabulary |                            |
| Bonjour                       | Hello                      |
| Au revoir                     | Goodbye                    |
| Comment Ça-va?                | How are you?               |
| Ça-va                         | Things are okay            |
| Ça-va bien                    | Things are going well      |
| Ça-va mal                     | Things are not going well. |
| Je m'appelle...               | I am called                |
| Comment t'appelles tu?        | What's your name?          |

Key Knowledge

- French is spoken in many countries around the world including Canada, Central African Republic and Belgium - look at the posters below!
- 'Bonjour', can be used as a formal greeting whereas 'salut' can be used as an informal greeting between friends.
- Questions such as 'comment ca va?' and 'comment t'appelles tu?', can be asked whilst raising shoulders and hands to demonstrate that a question is being asked.
- Some English names have a French equivalent.

