Key Knowledge

- In this unit we will look at adding e onto the end of an adjective to make the plural form.
- Draw pupils attention to plural forms - most of the words used add s.
- Look at exceptions to rules eg; one eye in French is un œil, yeux is the plural form. Another example would be Genou/genoux (knees(s) is another exception.
- Nez (nose) does not change at all when considering the plural. This could promote discussion of regular/irregular plurals in English e.g. sheep.
- In French most adjectives go after the noun they describe e.g. un nez rouge.
